MURDER TRIAL DRAGS SLOWLY

It Will Go Over Until Monday Afternoon
from To-day.

NEEDLESS CHINESE DRIVER HAS FINE REDUCED

Dowsett Partition Suit Amicable—
Malcolm Brown Enters Appearance—Harry W. Flint Cited for Contempt.

The trial of Charles Downing for second degree murder will not be concluded today. Only the second witness has thus far been called. Judge Humphreys will continue the trial, when the court adjourns for the day, until 2 p. m. on Monday.

Tomorrow will be devoted to divorce and chamber matters, and Monday forenoon to motions and appeals in mitigation.

Jurors not engaged in the murder trial are excused until 10 a. m. Monday.

Ah Tim, the Chinese hackman who ran over and seriously injured Horace Crabbe, had his District Court fine of $200 reduced to $50 by Judge Humphreys. This was on withdrawing his appeal and pleading guilty, with the consent of Deputy Attorney General Cathcart and S. F. Chillingworth, assisting the prosecution. Lorrin Andrews appeared for defendant.

Answers have been filed in the partition suits of Genevieve Dowsett vs. Marion C. Dowsett et al and vs. Elizabeth J. Parker et al by H. V. Turner, by his attorneys in fact—Geo. R. Carter and Hawaiian Investment Co.—admitting allegations and assenting to the prayer. The suits are to have the Dowsett homestead partitioned among the heirs of the late James I. Dowsett.

Malcolm Brown has acknowledged service of summons in the divorce suit of Mary Alice Brown, and entered his appearance and consent to trial at the present term of the First Circuit Court.

In the divorce case of Nina Flint vs. Harry W. Flint the libelee is ordered to appear before Judge Humphreys tomorrow and show cause why he should not be adjudged guilty of contempt for neglect to pay J. A. Magoon his counsel fee of $50 ordered by the court.

J. Penabaz, guardian of Emelia, Kihelu, Kamekua, William Maunaloa and Annie Wallani, minors, has filed an inventory, setting forth their several interests in three tracts of land aggregating about 95 acres, all subject to the life interest of the guardians.

RECOUNT DEMANDED

There is a movement now on foot to have a recount of the votes on the whole of this island. If this is done at all, it must be so ordered by the Territorial courts. The First Precinct of the Fourth District is the one particularly dwelt upon by those who are pushing the matter as there were twenty Parker votes thrown out when the first count was made.

TRANSPORT SOLACE.

The Navy Transport Solace arrived today at noon, 7 days from San Francisco and reports fine weather all the way. She is bound for Guam and Manila. The Solace has a complement of 147 men and has 230 people in all on board, including passengers and men going out on relief for the Philippine squadron.

HEALTH BOARD HEADLESS

The Board of Health will be a headless body tomorrow. Dr. C. B. Wood, president, retires then from office and membership. No appointment of a member to succeed him has yet been made. None appears to be in sight. The Board elects its own president. None of the present members, it would seem, has ambition for the office.

Dwight Denies Statement.

Chas. Dwight, who has charge of the work on the new Pali road, denies in toto the story published in this morning's Republican to the effect that he had fired out a lot of Hawaiians on account of their action in voting for Wilcox. He states that there is absolutely no truth in the statement as can be easily proved by a visit to the scene of operations. He states further that he never had any idea of firing out any men on account of politics.

Carries Hawaii by Narrow Margin and Sweeps Kauai-Defeat of Parker Possible>Returns Are Not Complete.

Leaving Maui, Molokai and Lanai out of the calculation on the matter of delegate to the 56th and 57th Congresses, the following figures are arrived at: Wilcox's plurality on Hawaii—For 56th Congress 116 For 57th Congress 130 Wilcox's plurality on Kauai—For 56th Congress 166 For 57th Congress 161 Total plurality for Wilcox on Hawaii and Kauai—For 56th Congress 282 For 57th Congress 294 Parker's plurality on Oahu—For 56th Congress 249 For 57th Congress 235 These figures give Wilcox's plurality for Hawaii, Oahu and Kauai: For 56th Congress 33 For 57th Congress 59 It was found yesterday afternoon that a mistake had been made in the returns from Wailuku which, when first telephoned up officially, was given at 25. The correct figure is 55 which means an addition of 30 to the original figures.

Robert Wilcox has been elected Hawaii's delegate to the 56th and 57th Congresses. This is the bare statement of a startling and most disappointing fact.

The Noeau from Hamakua on the island of Hawaii and the James Makee from Kapaa on the island of Kauai brought the news at an early hour this morning. Through the kindness of Purser Adams of the former steamer and Captain Tullett of the James Makee, the Bulletin is able to give the correct figures of the election.

As it was supposed by the captain of the Noeau that the returns from all of Maui and Molokai had been brought to Honolulu by other steamers, no stop was made at Lahaina to get the news for the people of this island. However, the Kinu on her way up, got the figures, carried them to Hawaii and there, after careful figuring on the part of a number of men in Hilo, secured the plurality for Wilcox which will be given later on. So Maui and Molokai are practically heard from so far as the vote for delegate to Washington is concerned.

It was simply a snowstorm on the Big Island, the Independents carrying nearly everything before them. The storm was even worse on the Garden Isle, for not a Republican on the ticket was elected. Many of the natives went to the polls wearing the yellow ribbon but they voted for the man who to their minds represented the ancient prejudices against the people whom they allege guilty of stealing the country from them.

On Hawaii, the vote for delegate to Washington stood as follows:

For 56th Congress—
SAMUEL PARKER	854
PRINCE DAVID	307
WILCOX	970

For 57th Congress—

SAMUEL PARKER	830
PRINCE DAVID	328
WILCOX	960

This shows a plurality of 116 for the 56th Congress and 130 for the 57th on the Big Island which was supposed to be strong for Parker. His own home district threw him down with a dull thud.

When the Kinu reached Hilo, a comparison of the results of the election on the islands of Oahu, Maui, Molokai, Lanai and Hawaii was made and, after careful figuring, it was found that Wilcox led the Republican candidate by 75 votes for the 56th Congress and 78 for the 57th.

The result of the election for Senators was as follows:

BROWN (Ind. and Dem.)	1079
PARIS (Rep.)	1025
KAHOI (Ind.)	991
HOLSTEIN (Rep.)	957
RUSSELL	954
WOODS	809
WEST	674
DESHA	664
LOEBENSTEIN	661
KAUHAKE	534
BLACOW	360
KAIKAL	341
RICKARD	209

Hawaii is entitled to four senators which gives the Republicans Paris and Holstein. The Independents have Kahoi solid, while Brown ran on both the Democratic and Independent tickets and may be called either.

The fight for representatives was very lively on Hawaii. Following was the result:

MAKEKAU (Dem.)	709
HABO (Dem.)	613
NALIMA (Dem.)	592
EWALIKO Ind. not Home Rule	564
MONSARRAT Ind. not Home Rule	513
KALIKOA (Ind.)	507
HANINO (Ind.)	503
KEKAULA (Ind.)	493

KAMAHOA	421
NAPE	408
WILLIAMS	393
WRIGHT	391
MATTOON	345
LEWIS	326
RYCROFT	321
LEONHARD	261
MARTIN	260
KANEKAULUA	216
PURDY	131
NALULANI	39

For each of the districts of the island of Hawaii the number of representatives to be chosen is four. It will then be seen that Makekau, Haeo, Nalima, Ewaliko, Monsarrat, Kalikoa, Hanine and Kekaula will be the men to take their seats in the House of Representatives as representing the Big Island.

As will be seen, the Democrats succeeded in getting in three of their representatives—Makekau, Haeo and Nalima.

The news from the Garden Isle is most disastrous to the Republican party but when all is known, the Republicans were not expecting more than a hundred votes from that place. The result of the election was as follows:

For Delegate to 56th Congress—
SAMUEL PARKER	149
PRINCE DAVID	145
WILCOX	315

For Delegate to 57th Congress—

SAMUEL PARKER	153
PRINCE DAVID	147
WILCOX	317

As will be seen, Kauai gives a plurality to Wilcox of 166 for the 56th Congress and 164 for the 57th and added to the 75 and 78 plurality from the remaining islands makes the total plurality of Wilcox 241 and 242 for the whole group. It can well be seen that his election is without doubt.

The fight for senatorial honors on Kauai resulted as follows:

NAKAPAAHU	313
KAHILINA	293
G. N. WILCOX	232
W. H. RICE	180
C. H. BISHOP	134

Both Nakapahu and Kahilina are Independents. The former is a Wai-mea man and is perhaps the best liked native on the Garden Isle. It was not his intention to run for the Senate but natives from one side of the island to the other called on him and finally prevailed on him to enter the fight. He is an upright fellow and it is on account of his square dealing in everything that he is so popular.

The following was the result of the fight for representatives:

PUUKI	319
AKINA	281
S. W. WILCOX	243
KAAUWAI	233
LELEIWI	221
KALI	164
CHAS. BLAKE	121
KNUDSEN	120
S. K. KAO	115
KALAWAIA	111
MIKA	98
SHELDON	96
PUNI	69
WALALEALE	25
WERNER	5

The island of Kauai is entitled to four representatives so that Puuki, Akina, S. W. Wilcox and Kaaui are the winners. The three natives are Independents while Wilcox is a Democrat.

When the steamer James Makee left Kapaa yesterday, the returns from the island of Niihau had not yet been received but as there are only about 20 registered voters at that place, no difference to the result on Kauai will be made by them.

Both steamers report a very quiet election on the Big Island and Kauai.

There was no fighting or rowdiness of any kind. The police were fully prepared for an emergency but their services, outside of regular routine duty, were not required.

The following will be the strength of the parties in the Senate:

REPUBLICANS—
From Oahu	4
From Maui, Molokai, Lanai	1
From Hawaii	2
From Kauai	0

INDEPENDENTS—
For Oahu	2
For Maui, Molokai and Lanai	2
For Hawaii	2
For Kauai	3

As the vote of Wailuku, Maui, Molokai and Lanai has not yet been received here, it is hard to tell just how the senatorial ticket will go but, judging from the way the three islands supported Wilcox (this general statement was sent from Hilo to the Noeau just before the departure of this steamer), the election of senators will result in the choice of two Independents and one Republican (H. P. Baldwin).

Brown of Hawaii can hardly be classed a full Independent so that the Republicans with their seven senators and the Independents with their seven will stand on about an equal footing.

The strength of the parties in the House of Representatives will be as follows, Maui being left out of the calculation on account of news not having been received:

REPUBLICANS—
For Oahu	6
For Maui, Molokai and Lanai	—
For Hawaii	0
For Kauai	0

INDEPENDENTS—
For Oahu	6
For Maui, Molokai, Lanai	—
For Hawaii	—
For Kauai	3

DEMOCRATS—
For Oahu	0
For Maui, Molokai, Lanai	—
For Hawaii	3
For Kauai	1

INDEPENDENTS (Not Home Rule)—
For Oahu	0
For Maui, Molokai, Lanai	—
For Hawaii	2
For Kauai	0

The news of the victory of Wilcox on the Big Island and Kauai was not received here with very much enthusiasm. As soon as the leaders of the independent party heard of the, to them, good news, they rushed out to the home of Robert Wilcox and there held a short jollification meeting. It is likely that there will be a big parade and luau tonight in honor of the success of the Garibaldi.

Bethel street in the vicinity of the Independent headquarters is crowded with natives who have gathered together to hear over and over again the news that has given them so much pleasure.

HE FINISHES STRO'G.

Buffalo, N. Y., Nov. 1.—The Roosevelt special pulled out of Buffalo at 8:30 a. m. bound for Jamestown, and scheduled to stop at many places along the route. The Governor felt very well, his voice not appearing to have felt the strain of last night's three meetings. For the first time since the campaign began, he last night attended a dinner after he was through with the meetings. Former Senator John Laughlin, of this city, gave a dinner to the orators and newspaper men of the train and the Governor asked to be included in the party. He made a few remarks about the pleasant features of the trip and the great assistance rendered by those who have accompanied him.
